

TORSVIK / WINTER HIDDEN SOUL OF THE FJORDS

Exploring the haunting beauty of one of Earth's most exquisitely majestic landscapes, Hidden Soul Of The Fjords is a musical journey, an 'Elemental-Sonic Soundscape' artfully expressing the primal origins, mythic mysteries and life-and-death realities of the stark and stunning Fjords of Western Norway.

The album is told in four musical Movements:

- 1 Presence
- 2 Beneath The Surface Touch The Sky
- 3 Shining Darkness
- 4 Heart

MEET THE ARTISTS

Heidi Torsvik began performing as a singer in public by the age of 8. She was in her first recording session by the age of ten and as a teenager she performed with the likes of jazz-legend Toots Thielemans. In her twenties she created several projects working with her pseudonym "Heidi Goodbye" including "The Last Hurrah" which received universal critical acclaim. Along with her popular solo album work, Heidi continues to innovate and create visionary art with music, film, writing and explorations of new technology for recording and live performances.

Lazerus Winter has worked with a wider range of diverse music artists including Jean-Michel Jarre, Steely Dan and Mike Oldfield and is a GRAMMY-nominated, 12-time multi-gold and platinum award-winning record producer, composer, artist, musician and mastering/mix engineer. His early work includes the recording of Donald Fagen's The Nightfly which was nominated for seven GRAMMY awards. Lazerus has also worked on the Soundtracks for two Sundance Winning Films, Dig! and Fuel. He has a Master's Degree in Consciousness Studies.

PRESS QUOTES

"In sum, the sounds are deep and lovely, like the subject matter they evoke. Varied, dynamic, and multi-dimensional. You owe yourself a good listen."
 - Jody Worth, Screenplay writer for Deadwood/NYPD Blue

"Equal parts ambient symphony, poetry and meditation, this beautiful record is a dream-state-journey woven throughout with the golden thread of Heidi Torsvik's inspired harmony. Presented in four movements, the whole is as absorbing as it is surprising and as delicate as it is delightful."
 - Gary Clark, Songwriter/Producer, Composer/Lyricist Sing Street Broadway, Executive music producer-Amazon Prime's Modern Love
