MR MIBBLER FALLING LADDER

The 2021 album Leave Your Thoughts Here (NXN4005) was described as 'clearly a major recording event of the year' (JazzViews, UK) and 'ten mouth-watering pieces of music' (UK Vibe) and was embraced by listeners worldwide. As usual Mr Mibbler continues to surprise and delight and their follow up Falling Ladder contains two longer pieces of music. Though this is not in the traditional song format, you will recognize the sounds and ambience that characterise the releases from this exciting Norwegian three-piece music collective.

MEET THE ARTIST

They are three musketeers who know their trade. They used to carve their verses from the noblest of woods. Polish the refrains, again and again 'till it shone like the purest gold. Now they are picking up broken pieces and fool's gold. Catching fleeting ideas out of thin air. Building shaky constructions that hover on the brink of collapse, but that lean on each other to grow strong and sturdy. They got bored with the middle of the road, stumbled off the beaten path and entered the wasteland. They are Mr Mibbler.
